

Polish-Japanese Law Seminar in NCU, Toruń, Poland

5 December 2022,

Faculty Council Meeting Room

I panel – 9.30 – 12.30

Chair: prof. Maciej SEROWANIEC, NCU in Toruń

Opening Speech – prof. Zbigniew Witkowski

Prof. Dr. INOUE, Noriyuki, Kobe University (神戸大学),
Constitutional Identity and Constitutional Patriotism in Japan,

Dr Iwona WRÓBLEWSKA, NCU in Toruń
Horizontal dimension of constitutional rights and freedoms in Poland

Prof. MONDEN, Takashi, Hiroshima University (広島大学),
Rethinking Judicial Review and Legislature in Japan from a Comparative Perspective

Associate Prof. Dr. TAKAHASHI, Kazuhiro, Toho University (東邦大学), Usage of DNA Information in the Criminal Investigation ; Comparing between Japan and the EU,

Dr Katarzyna JACHIMOWICZ, dr hab. Maciej SEROWANIEC, prof. UMK
Institutions of states of emergency in Poland. Theory vs. constitutional practice

Dr Anna FRYDRYCH DEPKA, NCU in Toruń
Polish presidential elections in the times of the COVID-19 pandemic : luckily not third time lucky

Discussion

12.30 – 13.30 – Lunch

II panel 13-30 – 16.00

Chair: Prof. Dr. INOUE, Noriyuki, Kobe University

Associate Prof. UKITA, Toru, Setsunan University (摂南大学),
Change and Development of the Educational System in the EU and Japan,

Dr hab. Piotr RĄCZKA, prof. UMK, mgr Jakub ZEMŁA Authorities of public higher education institutions in the Law on Higher Education and Science

Prof. SEKINE Yuki, Kobe University (神戸大学)
The Reform of the Judiciary in Japan in the early 2000s, and its impact on Social Protection,

Dr Jacek WANTOCH-REKOWSKI, prof. UMK, mgr Martyna WILMANOWICZ-SŁUPCZESKA
Constitutional right to social security in Poland

Prof. Dr. UEKI, Atsushi, Meijo University (名城大学), Discrimination because of Race and Ethnic and the Crisis of the EU,

Discussion

Conclusions: dr hab. Maciej Serowaniec, prof. NCU